Dear Parents and Skaters:

One of the benefits of joining our Basic Skills Program is eligibility to participate in shows, competitions, and recitals. Competition is a major part of our sport and skaters who participate in shows, competitions, and recitals tend to progress faster and enjoy skating more than those who don't.

We have two competitions scheduled especially for beginning skaters::

1. Our 2013 In-House Basic Skills Competition to be held on Saturday, May 11th here at Lloyd Center Ice Rink. ("In-House" means that this event is open to LCIR and Portland Ice Skating Club skaters only.)
2. The annual Portland Ice Skating Club Spring Festival Competition, also to be held here at Lloyd Center Ice Rink June 14th – 16th.

There are events for ALL levels, from Snowplow Sam (Snowbunny levels) through Freeskate 6, and higher. These events are for you! .

If you are already taking private lessons, ask your coach about the competition. If you would like to enjoy this competition, but do not have a private lesson instructor, ask your class instructor about how to participate. All our coaches are friendly, knowledgeable and experienced; don't hesitate to speak with them and ask questions.

SUMMERTIME SKATING

Summer is a great time to skate! The rink is refreshingly cool, and skaters get the chance to see their friends. (And you never get a sunburn at the rink!) Summer is less serious than winter, but savvy skaters come to the rink regularly to make sure they don't lose any of their hard-earned skills. Having fun at the rink is good any time of year.

SUMMER SHOW

Skate in the Summer Show!!! Remember all those great beach songs? Join your Skate School friends and be part of our Celebration of Summer at the Beach. Summer Show classes will be offered June 10th – July 27th. Dress Rehearsal July 27th. Summer Show July 28th.

FALL/WINTER EVENTS

Our annual Ice Crystal Classic Competition will be held mid-November. This event is open to all area skaters. Savvy summer skaters will be ready for this fun two-day event. Our Christmas Show will kick off with rehearsals in October leading to the performances in mid-December.

Skatingly yours,

Lloyd Center Ice Rink Coaching Staff
